

(b) The Judge will order interim action under paragraph (a) of this section, only after finding that there exists probable cause to believe that the violation charged in the NOPS or NIDP was committed. The Judge's finding of probable cause, which will be summarized in the order, may be made:

(1) After review of the factual basis of the alleged violation, following an opportunity for the parties to submit their views (orally or in writing, in the Judge's discretion); or

(2) By adoption of an equivalent finding of probable cause or an admission in any administrative or judicial proceeding to which the recipient of the NOPS or NIDP was a party, including, but not limited to, a hearing to arrest or set bond for a vessel in a civil forfeiture action or an arraignment or other hearing in a criminal action. Adoption of a finding or admission under this paragraph may be made only after the Judge reviews pertinent portions of the transcript or other records, documents, or pleadings from the other proceeding.

(c) An order for interim action under paragraph (a) of this section is unappealable and will remain in effect until a decision is made on the NOPS or NIDP. Where such interim action has been taken, the Judge will expedite any hearing requested under § 904.304.

Subpart E—Written Warnings

§ 904.400 Purpose and scope.

This subpart sets forth the policy and procedures governing the issuance and use of written warnings by persons authorized to enforce the statutes administered by NOAA, and the review of such warnings. A written warning may be issued in lieu of assessing a civil penalty or initiating criminal prosecution for violation of any of the laws cited in § 904.1(c).

§ 904.401 Written warning as a prior offense.

A written warning may be used as a basis for dealing more severely with a subsequent offense, including, but not limited to, a violation of the same statute or an offense involving an activity that is related to the prior offense.

§ 904.402 Procedures.

(a) Any person authorized to enforce the laws listed in § 904.1(c) who finds a violation of one of the laws may issue a written warning to a violator in lieu of other law enforcement action that could be taken under the applicable statute.

(b) The written warning will:

(1) State that it is a "written warning";

(2) State the factual and statutory or regulatory basis for its issuance;

(3) Advise the violator of its effect in the event of a future violation; and

(4) Inform the violator of the right of review and appeal under § 904.403.

(c) NOAA will maintain a record of written warnings that are issued.

(d) If, within 120 days of the date of the written warning, further investigation indicates that the violation is more serious than realized at the time the written warning was issued, or that the violator previously committed a similar offense for which a written warning was issued or other enforcement action was taken, NOAA may withdraw the warning and commence other civil or criminal proceedings.

(e) For written warnings under the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act or the Northern Pacific Halibut Act of 1982, the enforcement officer will note the warning, its date, and reason for its issuance on the permit, if any, of the vessel used in the violation. If noting the warning on the permit of the vessel is impracticable, notice of the written warning will be served personally, or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, on the vessel's owner, operator, or designated agent for service of process, and such service will be deemed notation on the permit.

§ 904.403 Review and appeal of a written warning.

(a) If a person receives a written warning from an enforcement agent, the person may, within 90 days of receipt of the written warning, seek review by the appropriate NOAA Regional Attorney. The request must be in writing and must present the facts and circumstances that explain or deny the violation described in the warning. The Regional Attorney will review the information and notify the person of his or her decision.

(b) If a person receives a written warning from a Regional Attorney or staff attorney, or receives a decision from a Regional Attorney affirming a written warning, the person may appeal the warning or decision to the NOAA Assistant General Counsel for Enforcement and Litigation. The appeal must be brought within 30 days of receipt of the warning or decision from the Regional Attorney. The Assistant General Counsel for Enforcement and Litigation may, in his or her discretion, affirm, expunge, or modify the written warning and will notify the person of the decision. The decision constitutes the final agency action.

(c) The addresses of the NOAA Regional Attorneys are:

Regional Counsel, Office of General Counsel,

Subpart F—Seizure and Forfeiture Procedures

§ 904.500 Purpose and scope.

(a) This subpart sets forth procedures governing the release or forfeiture of seized property (except property seized and held solely as evidence) that is subject to forfeiture under the various statutes administered by NOAA.

(b) Except as provided in this subpart, these regulations apply to all seized property subject to forfeiture under the statutes listed in Subpart A. This subpart is in addition to, and not in contradiction of, any special rules regarding seizure, holding or disposition of property seized under these statutes.

§ 904.501 Notice of seizure.

Except where the owner, consignee, or other party that the facts of record indicate has an interest in the seized property is personally notified, or where seizure is made under a search warrant, NOAA will, as soon as practicable following the seizure or other receipt of seized property, mail notice of the seizure by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the owner or consignee, if known or easily ascertainable, or other party that the facts of record indicate has an interest in the seized property. The notice will describe the seized property and state the time, place and reason for the seizure. The notice will inform each interested party of his or her right to apply for remission or mitigation of the forfeiture (including any agreement that may be required under § 904.506(b)(2)(vii)). The notice may be combined with a notice of the sale of perishable fish issued under § 904.505.

§ 904.502 Bonded release.

NOAA may, in its sole discretion, release any seized property upon deposit with NOAA of the full value of the property or such lesser amount as NOAA deems sufficient to protect the interests served by the applicable statute. The deposit will be held in a NOAA suspense account, or deposited with the appropriate court, pending the outcome of forfeiture proceedings. In addition, NOAA may, in its sole discretion, accept a bond or other security in place of fish, wildlife, or other property seized. The bond will contain such conditions as NOAA deems appropriate. The provisions of § 904.506(f) apply to NOAA's determination whether to release the property. The deposit or bond will for all purposes be considered to represent the property seized and subject to forfeiture.

§ 904.503 Appraisement.

NOAA will appraise seized property to determine its domestic value. Domestic value means the price at which such or similar property is offered for sale at the time and place of appraisement in the ordinary course of trade. If there is no market for the seized property at the place of appraisement, the value in the principal market nearest
